Demonstrates the Conflicts of Interest and Weaknesses of Marcato's Board Nominees

If Marcato is Successful, All Directors with More than 8 Months' Experience Would be Removed from the Board

Urges Shareholders to Vote "FOR" Each of Buffalo Wild Wings' Highly-Qualified Director Nominees on the YELLOW Proxy Card

MINNEAPOLIS—May 16, 2017— Buffalo Wild Wings, Inc. (NASDAQ:BWLD) today announced that it has released an investor presentation in connection the company's upcoming 2017 Annual Meeting of Shareholders ("Annual Meeting") to be held on June 2, 2017. Buffalo Wild Wings shareholders of record at the close of business on April 13, 2017 are entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting.

The 93-page presentation and other important materials related to the Annual Meeting can be found on the company's website at <http://www.buffalowildwings.com/en/2017-annual-meeting/> and have been filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC"). The presentation highlights the importance of electing the Buffalo Wild Wings' nominees at the upcoming Annual Meeting and discarding the proxy cards being mailed by Marcato Capital Management, L.P. ("Marcato").

As highlighted in Buffalo Wild Wings' presentation, one of Marcato's own nominees for the Board of Directors, Emil Lee Sanders, has given Buffalo Wild Wings shareholders one of the best reasons to vote against Marcato and for the Board's nominees. Marcato nominated Mr. Sanders and has published two full pages of materials strongly advocating for the election of Mr. Sanders because of his supposed knowledge of restaurants. Yet it was Mr. Sanders himself who wrote that Marcato's plan for Buffalo Wild Wings – which presumably Mr. Sanders would carry out if he were elected to the Board – involves:

"Massive G & A cuts and layoffs... Let's hope the lights are left on."

Buffalo Wild Wings - one of the most successful restaurant companies in the United States - believes that its shareholders should not have to "hope" that their healthy, multi-billion dollar company survives. Do Marcato and Mr. Sanders really think that Buffalo Wild Wings shareholders, who have been rewarded with compounded returns of 24% per year since the company's 2003 IPO, should voluntarily elect a slate of directors who will risk the company's survival, just so short-term performance can be enhanced?

The Buffalo Wild Wings Board of Directors encourages all shareholders to protect their investments by voting the YELLOW proxy card "FOR" the election of all nine of the Board's experienced and highly-qualified director nominees: Cynthia L. Davis, Andre J. Fernandez, Janice L. Fields, Harry A. Lawton, J. Oliver Maggard, Jerry R. Rose, Sam B. Rovit, Harmit J. Singh and Sally J. Smith.

In its detailed presentation, Buffalo Wild Wings also demonstrates:

- Buffalo Wild Wings Has Delivered Superior Value to Shareholders.
 - The company has delivered a total shareholder return of 1754% since its 2003 IPO, well in excess of casual dining peers.¹ Over the last one-, three- and five-year periods, the company's stock has outperformed the median performance of its casual dining peers.
 - Buffalo Wild Wings has consistently outperformed its peers on almost every operational and financial metric, such as restaurant-level margins and profit growth.
- Buffalo Wild Wings Is Successfully Executing Its Unique Strategy Driven by Innovation, Differentiation and Financial Discipline.
 - Buffalo Wild Wings has positioned itself uniquely in the casual dining sector and continues to innovate to appeal to sports fans, millennials and families, while driving revenue growth and prudently managing costs.
 - Buffalo Wild Wings continuously evaluates its restaurant assets and ownership mix based on a number of factors, and has recently decided to sell approximately 80 company-owned units to maximize shareholder value.
 - Buffalo Wild Wings is optimizing its capital structure and has returned a substantial amount of cash to shareholders.
- Buffalo Wild Wings Is Taking Proactive Steps in Response to the Current Operating Environment.
 - The Company has undertaken key sales initiatives including takeout and delivery offerings, loyalty programs, single day events and enhancing its lunch programs.
 - Restaurant level costs are being reduced through a continued focus on cost of goods sold, labor operations, operating expenses and occupancy costs.
 - Buffalo Wild Wings' ongoing initiatives will generate $40-$50 million of annual savings by the end of 2018.
- Buffalo Wild Wings Has the Right Board and Leadership and Compensation Is Aligned with Shareholder Interests.
 - Over the past 18 months, the company has substantially refreshed its Board and management team and now has one of the lowest tenured Boards in all of casual dining.
 - The company's executive compensation programs have been overwhelmingly supported by shareholders and align management's incentives with the creation of shareholder value.
- Marcato's Criticisms Are Unfounded, and Certain Proposals are Reckless and Would Be Damaging to Buffalo Wild Wings' Future.
 - The company has engaged extensively with Marcato and has reviewed its critiques and suggestions thoroughly, with the assistance of outside financial advisors.
 - Marcato has offered no plan for operating Buffalo Wild Wings differently, except that Marcato believes that the company should sell nearly all its restaurants to franchisees. Marcato's analysis for this proposal is based on numerous false, unrealistic and unproven assumptions, as described more fully in the investor presentation.

- Marcato's Nominees, Other than Sam Rovit, Would Not be Helpful Additions to the Buffalo Wild Wings Board.
 - One of the Marcato nominees has grossly exaggerated his professional biography, sought to benefit personally from Marcato's actions and has separately expressed doubts about the impact of Marcato's plans for Buffalo Wild Wings.
 - Buffalo Wild Wings considered carefully Marcato's other nominees, determined to nominate one of them to the Board and concluded that the other nominees lacked unique skills and proven track records.
 - Marcato is seeking to remove every independent director who has served on the company's Board for more than eight months. If Marcato is successful, the Board would be left without critical institutional knowledge.

We encourage all shareholders to carefully review Buffalo Wild Wings' proxy statement and the investor presentation, which is available at <http://www.buffalowildwings.com/en/2017-annual-meeting/>.

The company urges shareholders to vote "FOR" each of Buffalo Wild Wings' nine nominees today by telephone, by Internet or by signing and dating the YELLOW proxy card and returning it in the postage-paid envelope provided. No matter how few shares they own, it is important that all shareholders have their voices heard in this critically important decision regarding shareholders' investment. The company further encourages shareholders to discard any proxy materials sent to them by Marcato.
